

CORRESPONDENCE

WARREN

Mr. Harry Tarbell of Portland, is spending the week with his cousins, the A. H. Tarbell family of Warren.

A large delegation from Warren attended the Saturday tropical meeting of the Dairymen's League at Portland.

At the next social evening of the grange the entertainment will be given exclusively by the younger members of the grange. The date is July 27. A fine program is being arranged.

Miss Hedwig Hammer of Burlington, Washington, who is attending the Lincoln high school in Portland, spent the week with her schoolmate, Miss Elizabeth Hyskell at the Oregon Berkshire Company's ranch.

The W. S. S. meeting will be held in the hall instead of the schoolhouse as heretofore announced. The drive is on and it is expected that Warren's quota will be completed by Friday night, the meeting date.

Judge Grant B. Diemick of Oregon City will give the Fourth of July address at the celebration here. All arrangements are about completed for a grand time and a patriotic time is promised to all who attend.

Haying is well along and while the crop is scarcely over one-half, the quality is good. The aphids are proving very destructive to cat, pea and garden crops and combined with the extensive dry weather the returns do not promise much to the grower.

The W. S. Stamp meeting in the Evangelical church on Sunday night was well attended. Rev. Bowersox of Portland gave a very interesting and patriotic talk. The music was furnished by the Tarbell orchestra.

Albert Freeman, who has served at master of the grange since January 1st, resigned Saturday night and A. H. Tarbell was elected in fill the position. Mr. Tarbell is now serving his fourth term as master of Warren grange.

The community flag has been purchased and will soon be waving in the breezes. It is a beauty, 8x12 feet and the residents are justly proud of "Old Glory" for what it represents and of the beauty of this individual flag.

Thos. Hyskell, second son of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hyskell, spent Sunday with his parents, prior to going to join the Merchant Marine service at Seattle. This makes both sons of the Hyskell's in the service, Corporal Edward now being on his way to France.

The warehouse committee met with Mr. Fowler of the S. P. & S. Ry. Co., on Thursday and decided on a site for the building. It will occupy a frontage on the track of 60 feet. A meeting of the stockholders is called for this Thursday evening to complete arrangements for the erection of the plant.

DEER ISLAND

Sylvia Fredin is home from Portland at which place she has been attending high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hansen came home Tuesday from Portland where they had taken Evangeline to have her tonsils and adenoids removed. Evangeline is feeling as well as could be expected.

Mrs. Schanz of Portland is visiting at the home of her uncle, Mr. Fred Gill.

A War Savings Stamp rally will be held at the schoolhouse on Friday evening.

Chas. Merrill and Bert Adams made a trip to Portland this week to attend a tractor demonstration and look over the dyked land at Gresham.

A birthday party was given Mrs. Lennie Clark on Friday evening. The birthday cake was in the form of a battleship. The candles represented the guns. Mrs. Clark did not say how many candles. There were 35 guests present.

Mr. Oscar Menifce, a prominent lumberman of Portland, was seriously injured by falling from a trestle at the Deer Island logging works yesterday. His leg appeared to be broken and there may be internal injuries. He was taken to the St. Vincent's hospital by auto, where he will be under the care of Dr. Herbert Nichols.

Mr. Ellis of the Lamb Timber Co., and Mr. Percy Allen of Portland, were in this city Tuesday.

Mrs. Minton Murphy and daughter Irene, who have been visiting relatives in Portland, returned Wednesday.

Mrs. Ed Enyart and son Ben, are visiting with Mrs. Agnes Meehan.

Mrs. Hazel Judisch, accompanied by Miss Marie Beaver, drove to Forest Grove Tuesday to spend the week with relatives of Mrs. Judisch.

Miss Irene Murphy of Portland, daughter of Ed Murphy of the Deer Island Logging Company is at the home of her cousin, Irene Murphy.

Mrs. May Newton leaves for a fortnight visit with friends at Toledo, Washington, on Thursday.

Miss Ruth Hunter is visiting Mrs. Baugston at the hotel.

Randolph Anderson left for Camp Lewis Monday. A farewell party was given him in the grange hall on Saturday evening. Refreshments were served at midnight. A number of out-of-town people were present.

Alex Rambolski, with the Coast Artillery, a home on a ten day furlough. Alex had the misfortune to break his leg and is just out of the hospital.

Miss Fay Larned is visiting with her aunt, Mrs. Adah Adams.

Mrs. Van Dodson who has been at the bedside of her mother, has returned home.

Mrs. B. J. Keelan has been in Portland shopping this week.

•VERNONIA

The Knitting club of Vernonia held a social Saturday night. About $40 was realized from the social and this amount will be expended for yarn to knit socks and sweaters for the boys "over there."

After undergoing an operation for appendicitis at the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland, Mrs. Robert Spencer has returned to her home. Her many friends will be pleased to know that she is getting along nicely.

Tom McDaniels is erecting a nice residence on his ranch.

C. U. Enstrom, C. A. Mills and B. F. Lane made a business trip to Portland this week.

Did you hear the wedding bells last Thursday? Cyrel Johns and Christena Sword made a trip to Tacoma and were quietly married in that city. The newly married couple will make their home on the Dahl ranch near the steel bridge.

Marjorie Holladay returned from Eugene on Tuesday.

Mrs. Fred Grant and children spent the week end with her parents, on the ranch.

Albert Johnson has moved to the high land on account of the water rising.

Parents remember to send their children to the Junior Choir, 7:30 Wednesday evenings, at the church.

Wilbur Miller and family spent Sunday in St. Helens.

Joaquin Miller and family have been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Miller.

Helen Mulliford of Eugene is a guest of Marjorie Holladay.

Mr. Grewell is arranging to paint the properties of Bert Adams and Frank Adams.

Bert Adams lost a valuable horse last Sunday. About 11 a. m. he turned the pair into pasture and walked up to the ranch so the horses could rest. Shortly after, the one was found with a broken leg. A veterinary was called but the horse had to be shot. The supposition is it had been kicked by the other horse.

W. E. Stevens was severely burned about the arms on Monday. His sister, Mrs. Copeland added a little gasoline to a boiler of clothes, when it boiled over the gasoline set the
